MISLEADING INFORMATION ON STATE SERVICE PENSION BENEFITS

The Public Service Commission (PSC) has noted with deep concern the dissemination of misleading information on social media platforms regarding State Service Pension benefits that accrue to employees of Government.

This misinformation has led to misguided decisions by state employees that have resulted in financial prejudice.

The PSC is determined to counter such mischievous falsehoods by providing clear and accurate information on pension benefits to Government employees, and urges all who might have queries or uncertainties about benefits due to them to approach the nearest PSC office in their respective Districts and Provinces.

Please note the PSC is the sole authority responsible for providing accurate information and guidance related to State Service Pension. Any information circulated on social media platforms by individuals claiming to have insider knowledge or purported updates should be disregarded. Members are encouraged to report any suspicious or misleading information to the PSC through the contacts provided below.

For any information or clarification please contact us on 263/242 703 822/5 or email: pensions@psc.org.zw or visit your nearest Public Service Commission office countrywide.
